Basque Country

The Basque Country is located in the North of Spain, the home of among the world's finest food, beaches in natural settings, avant-garde architecture... This area in northern Spain is the ideal place for an all-round visit. If you go to the Basque country you absolutely have to try the famous "pintxos": miniature morsels of "haute cuisine" which you'll see displayed in all their glory on the counters of numerous bars. You'll also find several restaurants run by some of the standard-bearers of the new Spanish cuisine. And if you'd like something delicious to drink, try any of the wines from the Rioja Alavesa or Txakoli regions.

The Basque Country has beautiful coastal destinations like San Sebastián, Zarautz, Getaria, Lekeitio, Hondarribia as well as inland cities such as Vitoria and Bilbao. This last location is home to such innovative buildings as its Guggenheim Museum, which has received international acclaim. Don't miss it, or the spectacular Vizcaya suspension bridge, with the UNESCO World Heritage designation. And added to all this, the Basque Country has a range of spectacular natural resources (both nature reserves and biosphere reserves) which make this the perfect place for sports, and offer yet another good reason to set out on the popular Way of Saint James pilgrim route which passes through this part of Spain.

Within this flag we have the Guggenheim Bilbao Museum, along with a 'European Green Capital' winner, Vitoria - Gasteiz, and one of the most beautiful cities in the world, San Sebastian. We also have superb cuisine, and the oldest language and traditions in Europe. It's the Basque's flag, and for us it's a pleasure to welcome you to the Basque Country, a small country with a big identity.
